

23rd October 2022
30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR C

First reading Ecclesiasticus 35:12-14, 16-19

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages.
He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man,
 he listens to the plea of the injured party.
He does not ignore the orphan's supplication,
 nor the widow's as she pours out her story.
The man who with his whole heart serves God
 will be accepted,
 his petitions will carry to the clouds.
The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds,
 until it arrives he is inconsolable,
And the Lord will not be slow,
 nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 33(34):2-3,17-19,23

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
 his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
 The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. R.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
 those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
 Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

R.

Second reading 2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

2 Cor 5:19

Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself;
and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 18:9-14

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else: 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR PARISH VISION:

We are a Parish community embracing our Catholic faith and cherishing the Good News of Jesus Christ. Enriched by our diversity, we reach out to others and welcome all into our Parish. In the spirit of Mother Teresa and through our living and praying together, we want to grow strong in faith, hope and in our love for God and one another.

When we are ill and go to the doctor, it would not make much sense to tell the doctor about another person's illness. The doctor would not be able to treat us if we complained about someone else's illness and did not tell our own symptoms. If you were to do that, you would go home again just as sick as when you went to see the doctor. Strange as that may seem, it is precisely what happens in the parable that Jesus tells in the Gospel. The Pharisee and tax collector both go to the Temple to pray. However, the Pharisee, instead of presenting himself humbly before God asking for God's help and grace, he came to God complaining about others' sins and did not go home with the peace of God in his heart. On the other hand, the tax collector came before God in complete humility, admitting who he really was, and went home at peace with God.

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday; it reminds us that we are one with the Universal Church around the world and that we are all called to commit ourselves in carrying on the mission of Christ, however different our situations may be.

We will be having our AGM this Sunday.

Tuesday 1st November: Feast of all Saints Mass at 9.00am

Wednesday 2nd November: All Souls day. We remember and pray for all our deceased loved ones. Mass at 9.00am and 6.00pm. (If you would like to offer Masses for your deceased loved ones during month of November, please write the names on the November Mass Envelopes and place them in the basket at the Altar.

We extend our sincere condolences and sympathy to EvaParedes, the children, family & friends and Neo-Catechumenal community on the loss of Daniel Paredes. He was a loving Husband and Father and dedicated Missionary. Daniel died peacefully on Wednesday night. We pray that Jesus our Good Shepherd may lead him into his heavenly kingdom. Please keep the family in your thoughts and prayers.
